With an estimated 1 million players, EA Sports FIFA is the most popular game in the world, and with FIFA 23 on the horizon, fans of the franchise are eager to see what new features are coming their way in the online video game. And, with brand-new features in FIFA 22 like “Multiplayer Rivals” where the top 100 players in the world are ranked and earn their way in competitive FIFA tournaments, the game is also very playable and accessible. But, is it balanced? Below, we take a look at some of the newest features being introduced to the series and show you if these new changes really make FIFA 22 a better game, or is it just an enticing facade for potential newcomers, who may be pushed away by similar features that already exist in some FIFA titles. Please note that this is a collaborative work and all the opinions featured are the author’s own. Please note that this is a collaborative work and all the opinions featured are the author’s own. Power Attributes Speaking of which, Power Attributes are used to rank players and determine player attributes, a valuable feature that is also featured in FIFA 20 (and FIFA 19). Players receive attribute points based on their attributes: Man of the Match: 90 points. Top Left: 90 points Top Right: 90 points Bottom Left: 90 points Bottom Right: 90 points Here, we see that a Top Left Player is more effective than a Top Right player. This is because a player who receives the Top Left power attribute is awarded a 50% improvement in the players’ power for their “passing” attribute. ## Fifa 22 Features Key:

- New Career Mode - Live out your dreams as both a manager and a player in FIFA 22. Create the newest club in FIFA, design your kits, style your stadium, and choose whether to compete with the elite or rise up from the lower divisions as you manage your club to glory. Or test your skills as a player, with a more immersive Player Career mode that gives you more ways to progress, achieve, and immerse yourself in your Pro's journey through the game.
- Official First Team: Featuring players from pre-existing clubs plus a number of new players from South America, Africa and Eastern Europe.
- Intense Dedicated Match Engine: Playing like a true-to-life simulation, individual players will attack and defend with verticality and realistic, nuanced reactions to maintain the balance of the game by reacting to passing, shooting, tackling and dribbling.
- Intelligent Refereeing and Role Specific Assist System: New physics-based artificial intelligence (AI) in the refereeing system will allow referees to make crucial decisions without human intervention. In addition, game specific radio instructions add to give players and managers the required tactical information in real time.
- FIFA Skills 3: Players are now able to unlock in game move sets in more ways than ever before, with new pro-only move sets including, Wall Clips, Headers, Silhouettes, throw ins, Robot Walks, Replays and Non-Pause Play.
- The Experience: In the Experience, you can experience the intimate game from the player's perspective. You'll feel the contact as you deal with challenges such as a tired foot, undermanned defenders and a cluttered pitch. Handling different playing surfaces with varying levels of friction is never dull.
- Dynamic Player Creation - Take part in the creation of the most authentic FIFA soundtrack, film, and radio in history. Over 85 tracks from legends such as Ennio Morricone and Thomas Newman and growing artists, including Yung Lean and Mura Masa, being used for the first time.
- FIFA Mobile - Play your way - Sign up to receive alerts of new content for mobile on your favourite game platform, iOS or Google. Then redeem bonus codes to receive bonus content.
